

Marcus Autism Center Caregiver Workshop Series

Foundations for Learning

Are you interested in learning a new way to engage with your child with ASD?

Are you ready to start teaching new skills, but not know where to start?

About the workshop

This workshop was created caregivers of individuals diagnosed with autism spectrum disorder and other developmental disabilities and those who want to learn more about ASD. Caregivers will learn how to encourage your child to become a willing learner and provide ideas on what you can do at home as part of your normal routine. This workshop is appropriate for caregivers who wish to learn more about how to set a solid foundation for learning and facilitate the development of play skills.
